LEADING AN INNOVATIVE CULTURE

WEEK 12

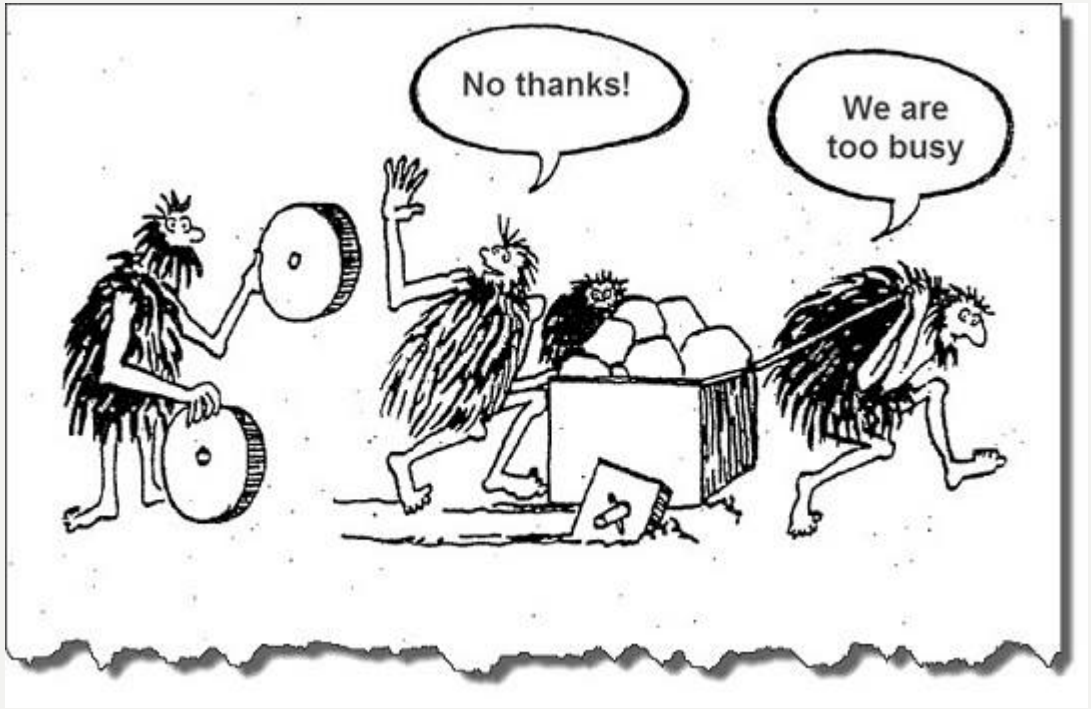

MGMT 2094

DEVELOPING AN INNOVATIVE CULTURE

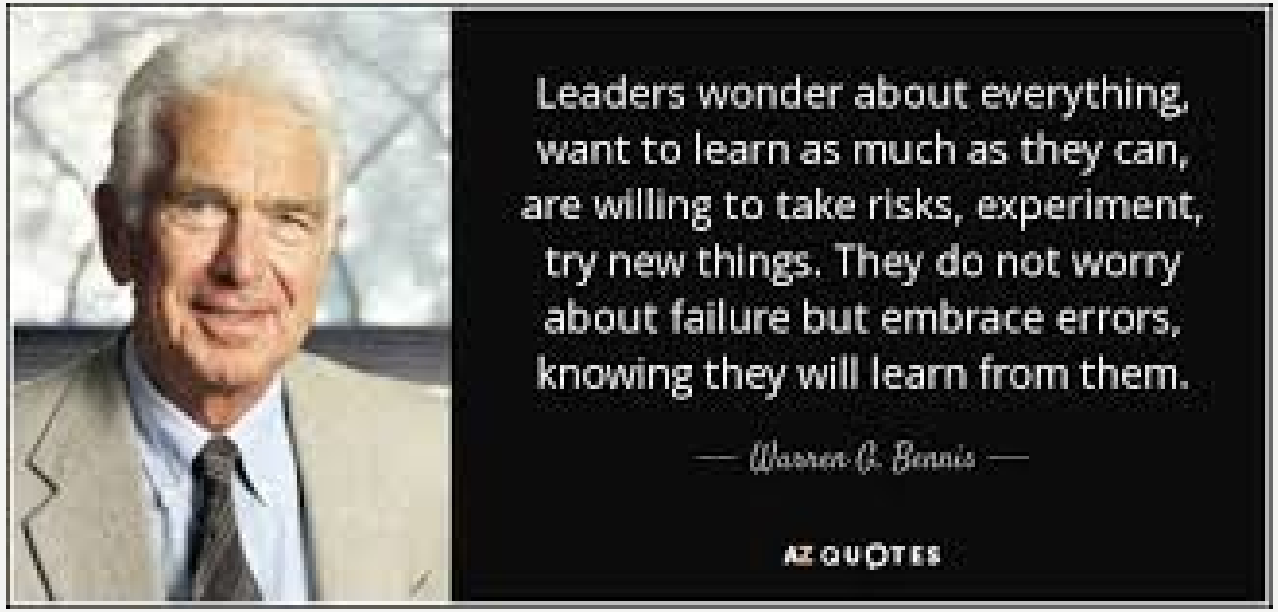

WHAT DOES THE INNOVATIVE CULTURE LOOK LIKE?

- Commitment to innovation:
  - People care about work, co-workers,company.
  - Sustained organization and improved workplace.
- Resistance to innovation:
  - Lack of follow-through.
  - Lack of engagement.

EXPERIMENT PROACTIVELY

- Companies that do this:
  - Challenge status quo.
  - Think outside the box.
  - Take risks and try new things.
- Companies that don't do this:
  - "If it ain't broke, don't fix it."
  - "We've always done it this way."
  - "Customers like it this way."

INNOVATIVE CULTURE

- Culture that cultivates innovators:
  - Managers allow ideas to be heard.
  - Innovators have space to develop and test.
  - Innovation is rewarded.
- Culture that doesn't produce innovators:
  - Failure is discouraged or punished.
  - Employees are reluctant to bring up ideas.
  - Innovation is top-down.

/

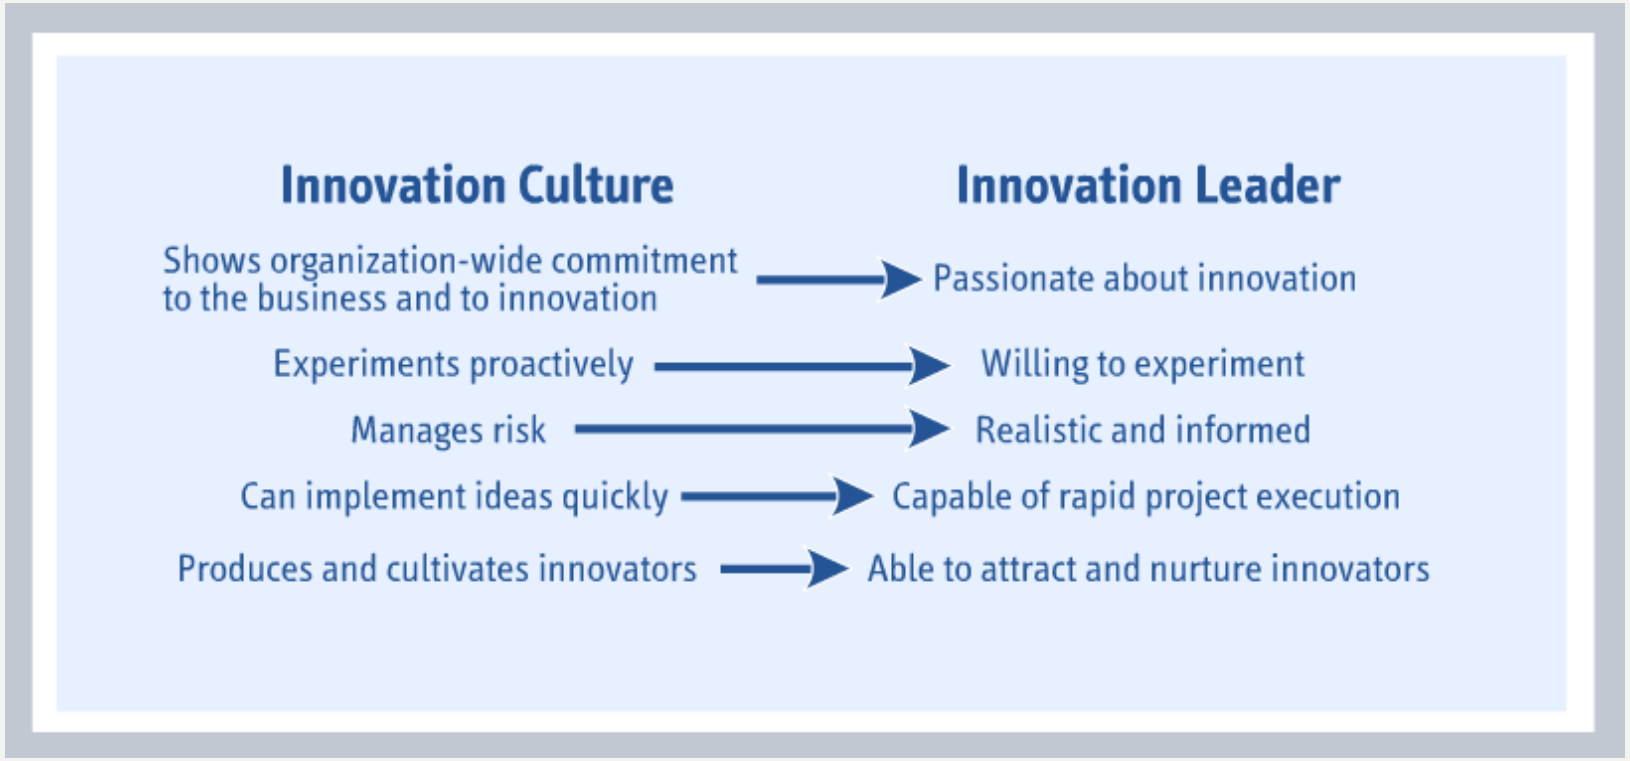

WHAT IS AN INNOVATIVE LEADER ?

- Passionate about the company.
- Obsessed with restoring innovation.
- Willing to take risks.
- Can manage risks.
- Can start projects quickly.

CHARACTERISTICS OF AN INNOVATIVE LEADER

HOW TO LEAD INNOVATION

CHALLENGES FACED WHILE MANAGING INNOVATION

1. Why Change?
   - Only innovation matters.
2. What to Change?
   - Ranging from changes in product & service to the ways(i.e. process innovation).
3. Understanding Innovation.
   - Understanding common problems associated with partial views of innovation.
4. Building an Innovation Culture.
   - Managing Innovation is all about creating firm specific routines(i.e. repeated, reinforced patterns of behavior) which define its particular approach to the problem.

CONTD…….

5. Continuous Learning
- Firms constantly needs to develop their routines to deal with the environmental challenges.
6. High Involvement Innovation
- Higher level of participations in innovation represents a competitive advantage.
7. Managing Connections
- In current scenario business organizations are required to operate in relationship with others rather than in splendid isolation.

BARRIERS TO INNOVATION

- External Barriers
  - Market-Related Barrier
  - Government & its Policies
  - Others (Technical, Societal, & Inter Organizational Barriers)
- Internal Barriers
  - People Related
  - Structural
  - Strategy Related

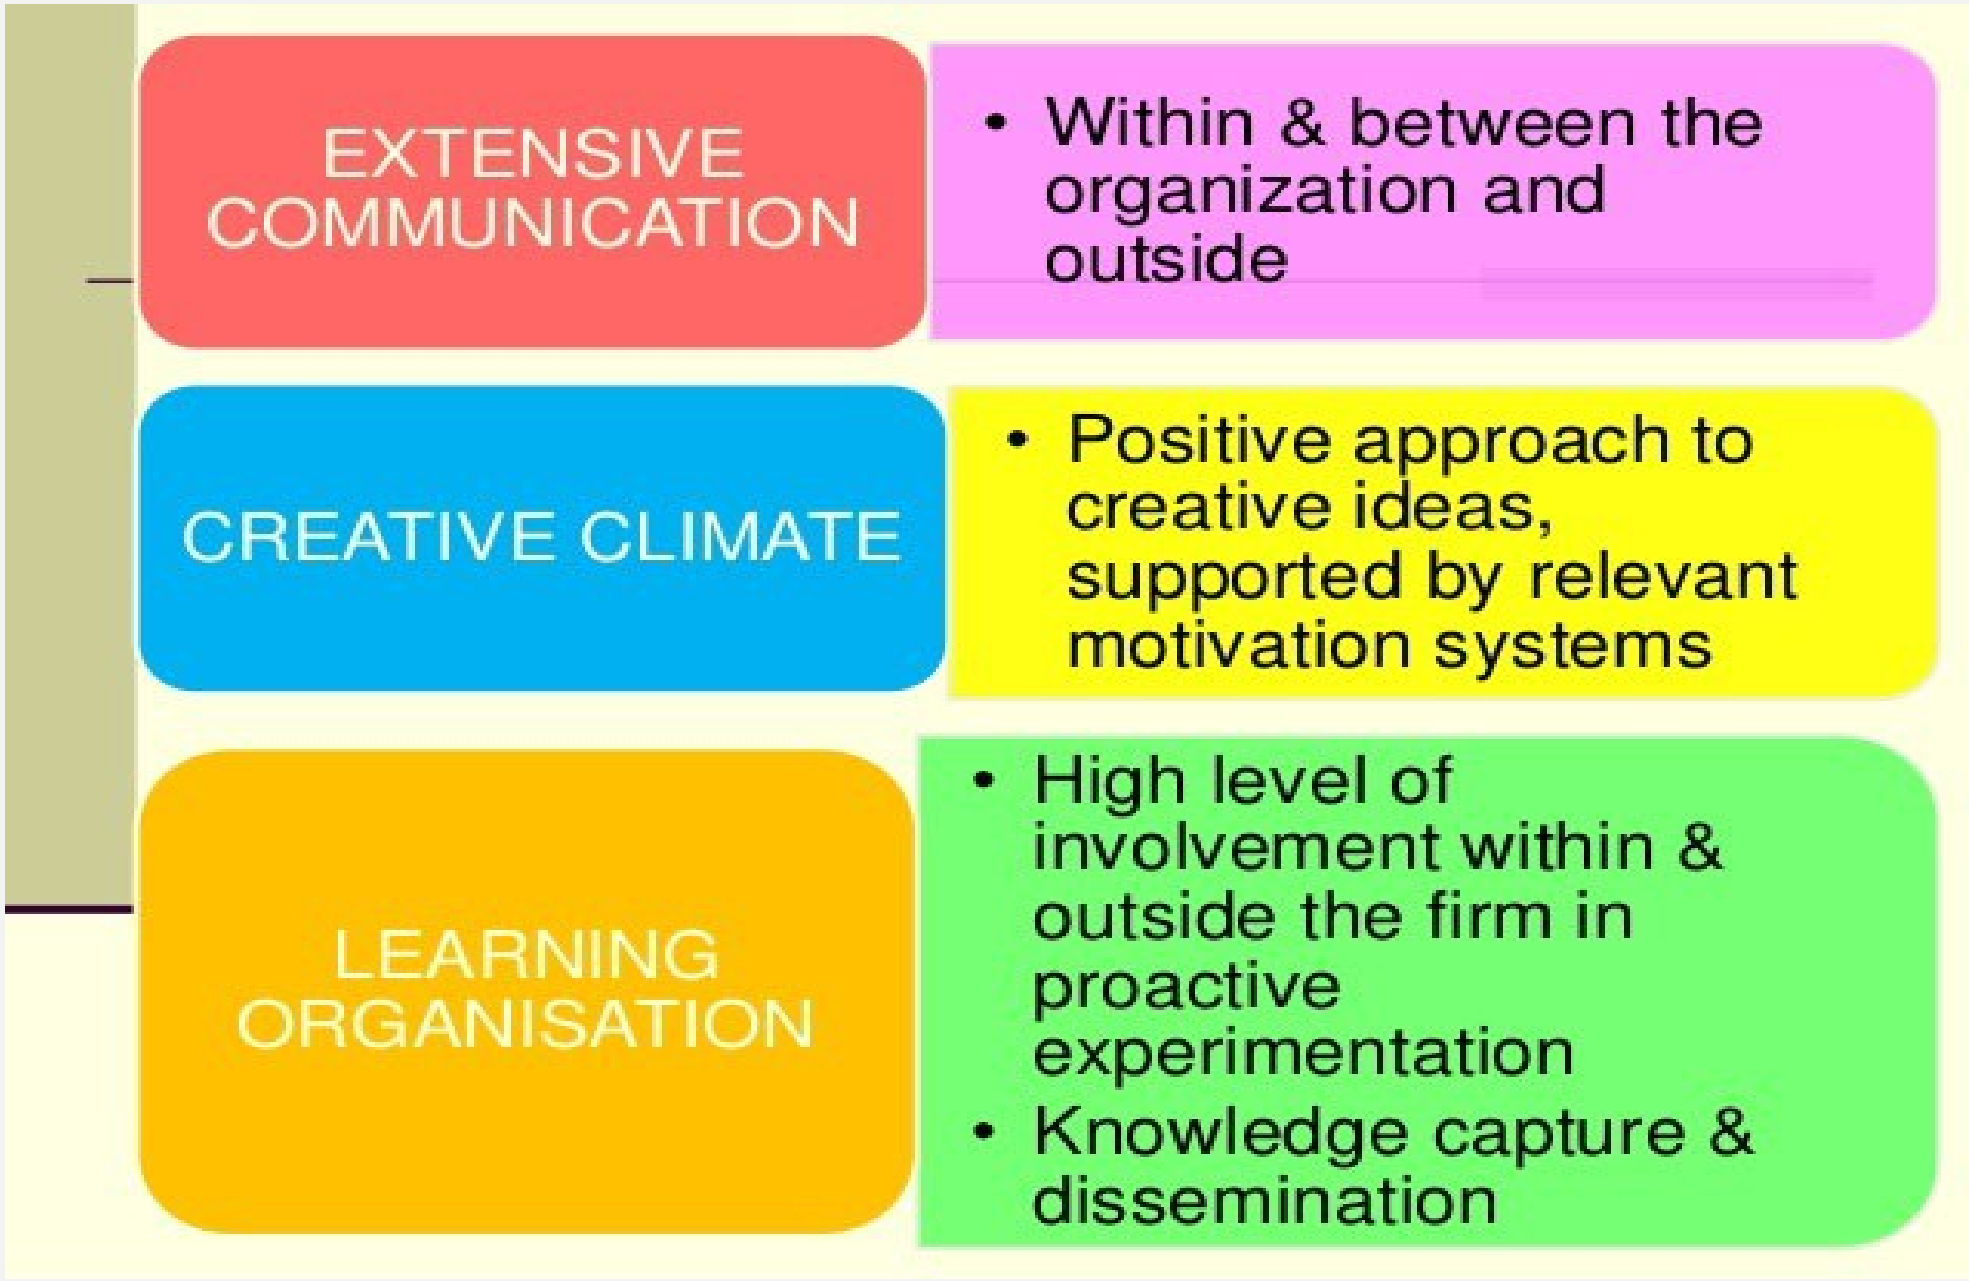

LEARNING TO MANAGE INNOVATION

HOW TO OVERCOME THESE BARRIERS

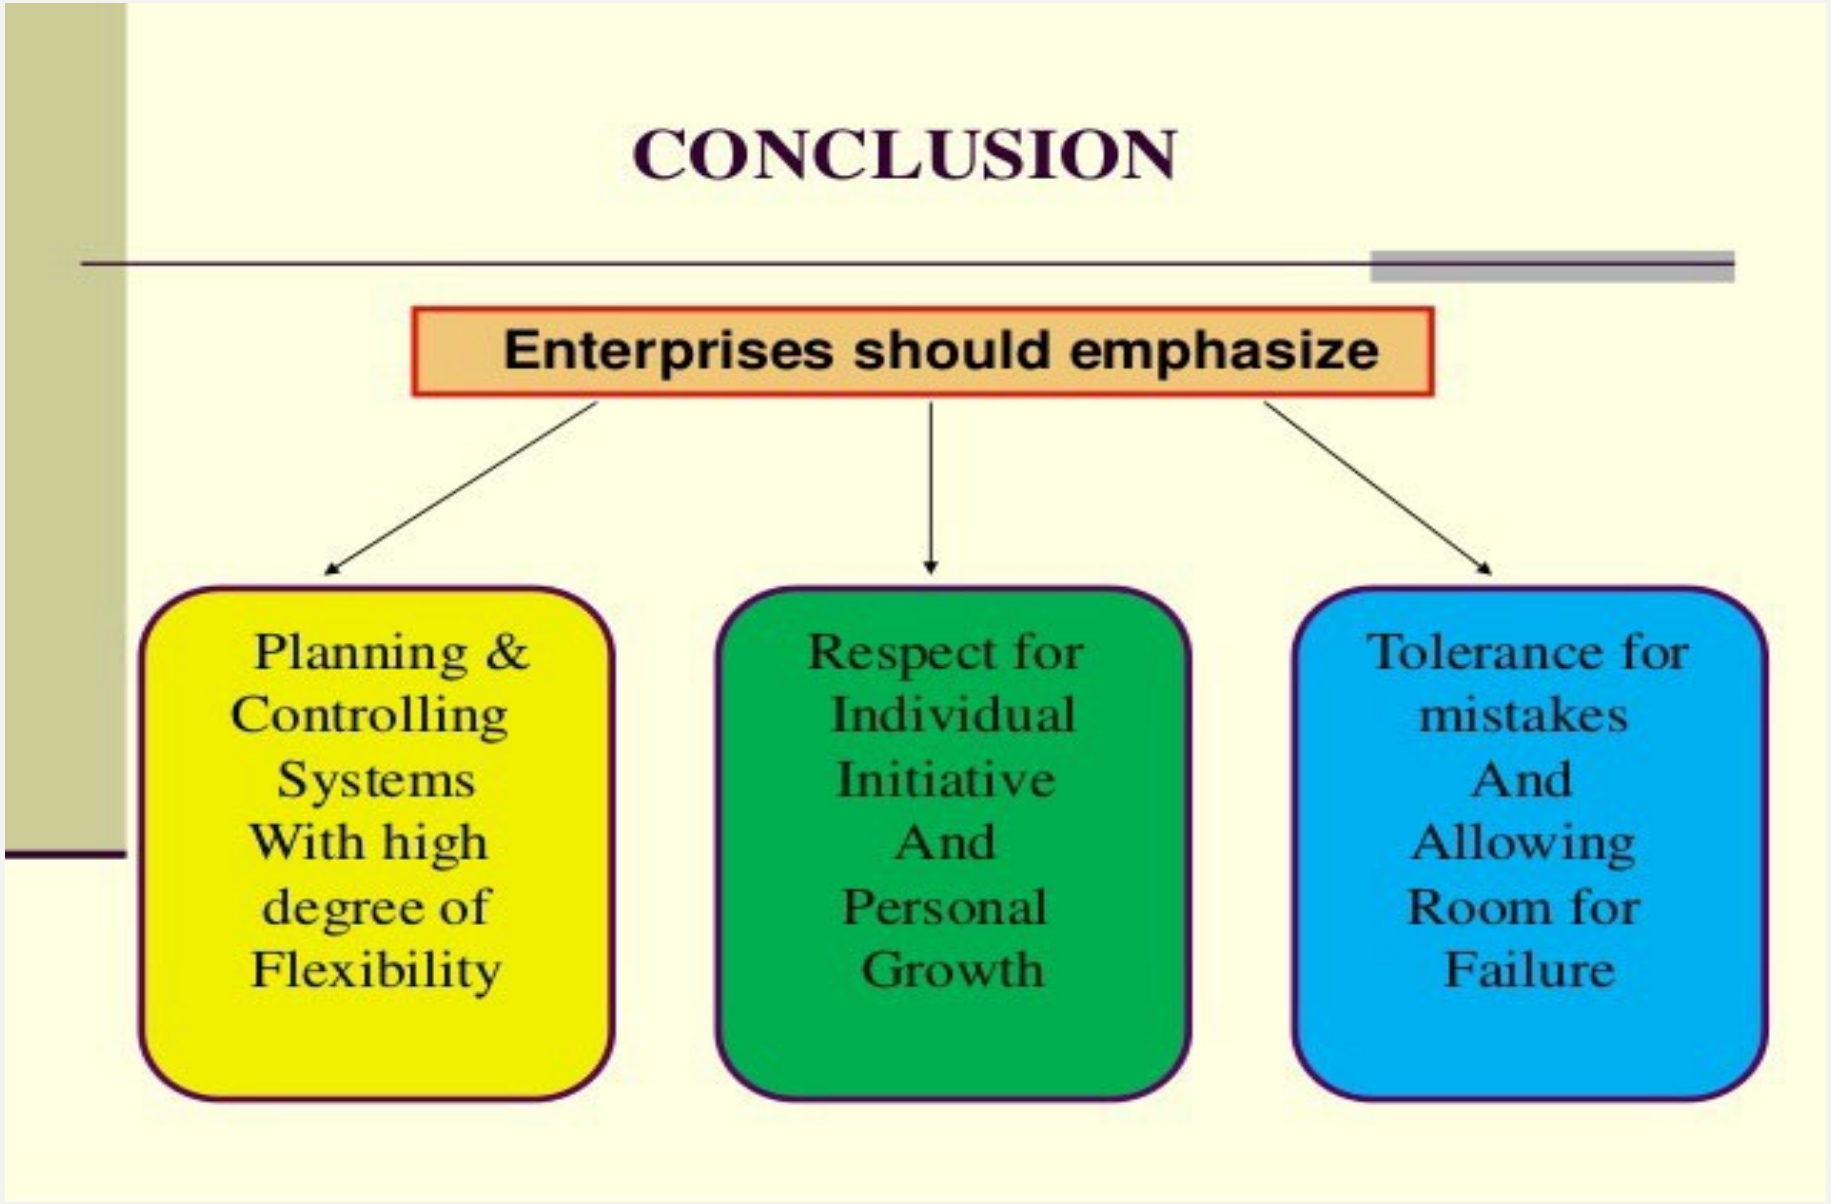

SHARED VISION, LEADERSHIP & THE WILL TO INNOVATE.	• Clearly articulated & shared sense of purpose • Stretching strategic intent • Top management commitment.
APPROPRIATE CULTURE	• Encouraging creativity • Enabling learning & interaction • Balancing between 'organic & mechanistic'

CONTD.

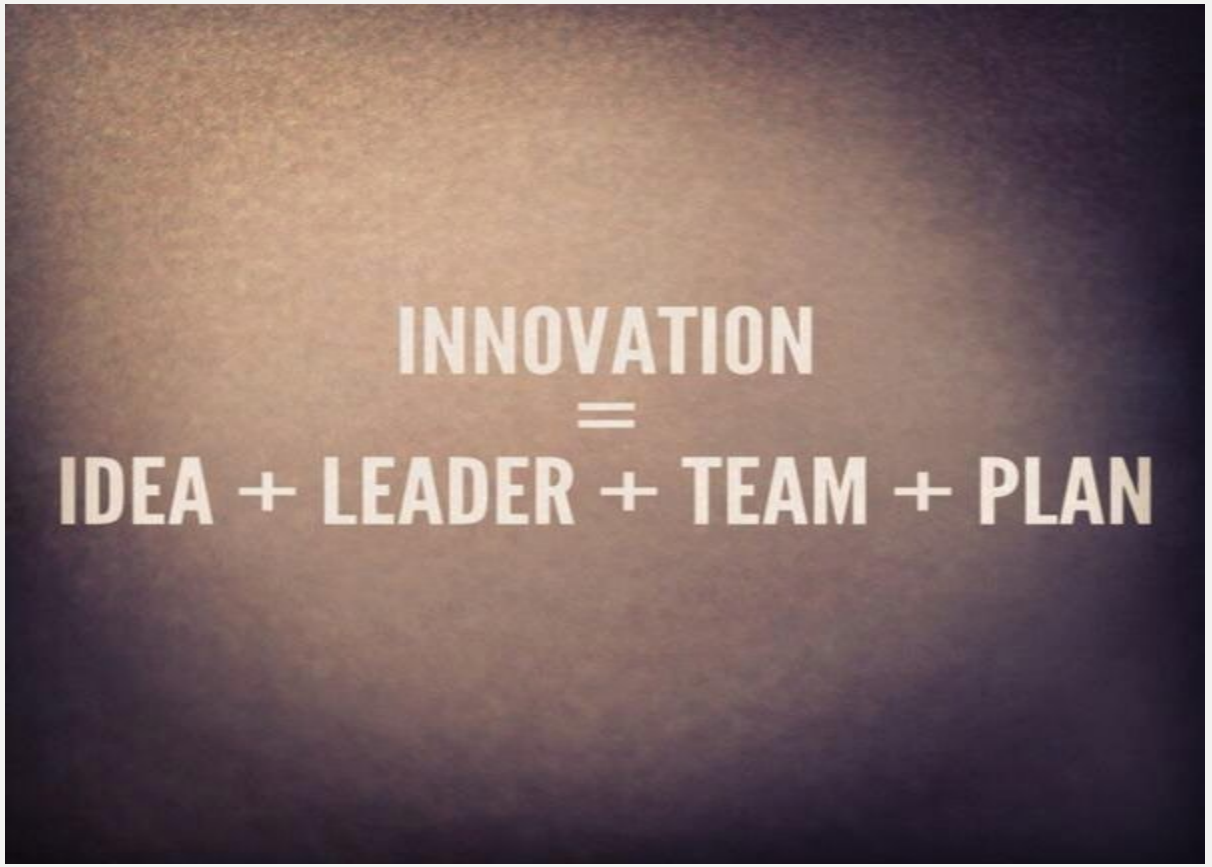

KEY INDIVIDUALS	• Promoters, champions & other roles which facilitate innovation
EFFECTIVE TEAM WORKING	• Use of teams at cross-functional & inter-organizational level • Investment in team selection & building
CONTINUING & STRETCHING INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT	• Education & training of employees to ensure high level of skills & competence

EXTENSIVE COMMUNICATION
• Within & between the organization and outside
CREATIVE CLIMATE
• Positive approach to creative ideas, supported by relevant motivation systems
LEARNING ORGANISATION
• High level of involvement within & outside the firm in proactive experimentation
• Knowledge capture & dissemination

CONCLUSION

Enterprises should emphasize
Planning & Controlling Systems With high degree of Flexibility
Respect for Individual Initiative And Personal Growth
Tolerance for mistakes And Allowing Room for Failure

Now lead on and be innovative!!

Next week

In week 13, there will be NO tutorials.

Writing Task

Value: 20%

Due: Tuesday 2nd November between 13:00 – 16:00 via Turnitin

Words: 750 words +/- 10% (not including reference list or intext references)

Please Note: Upload to Turnitin as a Word doc.

Communicate your findings on one contemporary innovation approach, underpin the theory and explain why the approach you chose plays an important role in organisations today. You can choose more than one approach.

Throughout your writing use organisational examples, these can be from both local and global organisations.